Information and general conditions for participants at MIA | Palazzo Barberini

1. Introduction

MIA is a brand and a project promoted and organized by ANICA Servizi Srl (with ANICA – National Association of Film, Audio-visual and Multimedia Industries – as sole shareholder) and APA (Association of Audiovisual Producers).

MIA is carried out by ANICA Servizi Srl and APA through a temporary grouping of Companies, with the support of MAECI (Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation), ICE – National agency for the promotion of trades abroad and internationalization of Italian companies, and promoted by MIBACT (the Ministry of Cultural Heritage and Activities and Tourism) and Regione Lazio, with the technical sponsorship of Fondazione Cinema per Roma.

2. Access

Participation in and general access to MIA premises is reserved exclusively to MIA accreditation-holders.

It is necessary to apply at the MyMIA page for the accreditation to participate in the activities of MIA onsite and online within the period and in the manner stipulated by the Accreditation Regulation.

3. Accreditation

The accreditation is personal and not transferable.

You will have to exhibit your QR code (sent by MIA) to enter Palazzo Barberini. Please check that your cellphone is charged, otherwise MIA will provide charging points outside the venue.

Please note that a valid ID could be requested.

5. Rules of conduct at Palazzo Barberini

We kindly ask you to take care of yourself and the others by following the Italian regulations regarding Covid-19's that you will find in our website.

Beyond Covid-19 rules we kindly remind you to respect the venue and your fellow MIA participants by observing the following:

- do not bring food or drinks inside the museum nor eat, drink or smoke; you are allowed to do that in the outdoor spaces;
- do not overcome barriers;
- do not touch the art works;
- do not watch films/trailers etc. without headphones.

MIA provides for daily waste disposal and cleaning in all locations during the days of the market.

MIA embraces the values of environmental awareness and sustainability. We therefore kindly ask you to use the recycling bins and to limit the use of paper promotional materials, as well as single use plastic items.

6. Liability

The rooms are under surveillance during MIA. Notwithstanding, MIA cannot be held responsible for any theft of property left unattended by the owners, who are expected to protect their items of value (laptops, mobiles etc.)
